SECOND BIBLE A NECESSITY

Experienced Minister Knew What He Wis Talking About When He Advised Junior.

"Now that you are married," said the experienced minister to the young curate, "you will have to stop using the church Bible for home study. Oh, yes, I know how it is. You get attached to a certain Bible, and you study better with that right under your nose, and would willingly pack it back and forth for the inspiration it affords. I've been through it. Used to do that very thing myself, but aftgloves and some little lacey things that I shall not attempt to specify floated down from the pulpit on Sunday mornings in view of the asionished and amused congregation, I accus tomed myself to two Bibles. The women folk will put things into the Rible to press. It is a habit you can't break them off, and the first thing you know these feminine knick-knacks go salling away to humiliate you."

That night the curate turned the pages of his Bible carefully. A vell and a scrap of lace fell out. He sighed. The next day he began to cultivate an affection for a second Bible.

A Matter of Creed.

"Two men were disputing over their respective churches," says the Slater News in reviving an old story which is still good. "One was a Baptist and the other a Presbyterian, Finally one of them called a neighbor who was passing and asked his opinion as CAME FROM TEETHING to which was the better church in which to be saved. 'Well, neighbor,' he said, 'son and I have been hauling wheat for nearly forty years. There are two reads that lead to the mill. One is the valley road and the other leads over the bill, and never yet has the miller asked me which road I came, but he always asks, 'Is the wheat good?'"-Kansas City Times.
